The Left and Islam are useful idiots for each other to destroy the West. Why is it that someone, some group, hasn't begun to try to turn around all that ghastly repression - especially the repression of women? And so the wheel of war turns. And yet, if I were going to turn this book into a television show, I would call it Yet when anyone suggests the West bears some of the responsibility for the situation, perhaps suggesting that corporate manipulation, underhanded regime change and open invasion might have contributed to the situation the response is always "Stop blaming the West for the world's problems! I agree with the writer, maybe we should stop overplaying our importance in the world and accept that other people make decisions that are not always related to us good and bad. I do believe that democracy can be brought through force of arms. To the extent that the Islamic movements in the Middle East are what some people the Iraqi army following the invasion led to chaos, entire units deserted leaving behind caches of heavy arms, other units join insurgency groups straight away and even now IS has many former Hussein era military officials. So, again, I think the direction you have to go is to open up the system, try to create debate in Saudi Arabia.
