I was not wowed. If we didn't have that, as much as I love every other bit of him, I don't think our relationship would ever have moved past the rebound GUYS CAN COOK!! phase. I was in a relationship where we "shared the cooking" and I honestly found it annoying and sort of like too many people in the kitchen maybe I need my own space too much while cooking, haha.

Ladies, do you love a man who can cook? I'd never in a million years date someone if they enjoy it, have some basic skill, and do it regularly, then it's a big plus in my books.
