And if you bend or break the rules imposed by science you have to explain how science as we know it doesn't impose the usual rules here, sufficiently well-performed hand-waving is OK, but breaking the rules without mentioning it is just No No for me, and being ignorant about something as basic as speed limits in space, is really really weak. Much like Alex, I hate bureaucratic nonsense and power plays, but where Alex can mostly ignore the intricate workings of the Alliance and Senecan governments, I was unfortunately not so lucky.
