There is even a weekly meeting, under the direction of the most experienced members, which examines grammatical questions, recurring mistakes. All the readers recommended removing direct references to Belgian Congo. The book was now in a position to compete with the comic as a mass consumption product for children 9.

There is even a weekly meeting, under the direction of the most experienced members. With his deep love of English culture, and background in journalism and teaching English, his outlook was typical of the new department. The new books were brightly coloured, filled with colour illustrations, and cheap. The final section analyses the new norms the editors created, and how texts were transformed, cut, and rewritten to fit the moral imperatives of the period.

Share your thoughts with other customers. Mirman commissioned French authors. It is clear that the editors saw the two series as now fitting into popular culture more generally.
