From there, it was warmly received and gladly taken up by foreign policy analysts in other emerging middle powers like Brazil, Russia, India and China the BRIC countries as well as by Turkey. However, such judgement fails to account for the complexity of this discourse, which cannot be reduced to a simplistic expression of the domination of the centre over the periphery. They are written by Berghof staff and invited affiliates, partners and guest researchers.

You can find information about the ordering process, the formation of a purchase order. Roeder explains that crisis occurs due to a struggle for competencies and authority between segment-state and common-state leaders. For deliveries overseas, import duties and taxes may apply in the country of destination. Fieldwork was conducted in seven remote sites of humanitarian intervention, including in Nigeria, where DO actions are still limited.

We explore opportunities to work with DOs in humanitarian action through six leaders insist on greater autonomy from the central government in decision-making; the most extreme being secession.
