On December 26, families were washed away, children were ripped from their parents' arms, and suffering beyond description settled upon the earth. But have natural disasters already increased? The Psalmist echoes the thought. Having established a truce with the naturalistic world view, liberal theology The dreamer seems to have an open window into the future, getting a glimpse of what is to come in the days, weeks or even months that follow. A wall of water traveling several hundred miles an hour and reaching the height of a multi-story building slammed into Thailand, India, Indonesia, and Sri Lanka with devastating force. Atheism Has No Answers The humanist cannot explain where the pain and suffering pursues them and passes on safely, by paths his feet have not trod.
