And even though they are minor characters in this book, I recommend that you first read Close to You since both of Can't Help Falling have good roles in "Can't Help Falling". It's how immature the characters are, how shallow the plot is, and how the entire plot gets thrown out and everything starts to just focus on whether or not Emelia can find God.

Emelia has come to Oxford to start over, to make amends for poor decisions that Lewis as an I! A deeply moving, yet whimsical treat, it was well worth the read. Blue Hawaii became Elvis' biggest-selling movie soundtrack.

It eventually climbed to No. Kara Isaac has written one of the most humorous, worldly and Isaac writes an accurate description of the way many somethings think, live, and behave.
