He seeks an alliance with the rulers of Spain, while fighting off rebels who support other claimants to the throne. Instead it really focused on Henry VII and his life and his constant insecurities during his reign.

Instead it really focused on Henry VII and his life and his constant insecurities. All in all a pleasant read, not the best but not the worst. In the aftermath of the bloody Wars of the Roses, Henry Tudor has seized the English crown, finally uniting the warring Houses of York and Lancaster through his marriage to Elizabeth of York.

Once again, I encountered repetitive, condescending writing, which only in trivia or quizzes. See All Goodreads Deals...
