Make the statement without hostility, as a matter of fact, then simply walk away. But this doesn't mean that you shouldn't reach a conclusion right now based on what you know about the situation.

Yet there is considerably more to the process of becoming what I call 'a reasoner'.

I am not among the feminists who believe it is wrong for women to chose domesticity and a family life. Yet, like the person who will be reduced to absurdity before admitting a mistake, many of us will never admit to adopting a new position.

Holding onto an untenable position just because that is what you believed yesterday?

Wendy McElroy has broken through the wall of sexual stereotyping to offer the have a right to be outraged by the disrespect that society heaps on their intellectual abilities. No one can know .
