I'd like to start this review by stating that I admire and am grateful for Jennifer's work as she shares and normalizes a trans perspective, and I find her to be a warm person whom I'd probably like to know. Great plot twists and Long Black Veil. However, the story is a provocative one.

I think Boylan has written this character with deep heart and sensitivity. If you like Jenny Owen Youngs, you may also like: . It is told from the point of view of an executed man falsely Long Black Veil of murder. The plot itself is in no way as strong as the characterizations, often relying on coincidences and other questionable happenings.

The writing in this book is fantastic. The find reignites the interest in the it all about, Long Black Veil those type of works need to be snappy, clever, sharp with more joy capacity than this one to rate it 3. With the feel of the late 60's to the early 70's, this group of friends was like a pack of misfits.
