Open Preview See a Problem? Some, like me will love the story but almost resent the philosophy for getting in the way. It's most definitely not easy to convey the complexity of the Tibetan approach. I don't like leaving ratings like these - I understand the pain and effort it takes to create a book, and the ease with which we can murder that effort. The story portrayed how a person reflects on their prior life before deciding how their new journey will progress. He travelled around Asia for 12 years before undertaking a PhD in social anthropology. I was the first to ask a question about This Flawless Place Between. Oct 17, Karin Bartimole rated it liked it.
