It is touted Play Hard - An Erotic Romance erotica for the thinking woman, in which it is not entirely successful, sometimes coming across an odd mix between Sex and the City and The Golden Girls but nonetheless it does use some sufficiently flowery prose to dance around its dalliances, which are arousing enough to make up for any distractions the aforementioned writing style may cause. Felicia donates poker lessons to a charity auction, because the proceeds will provide therapeutic riding for special needs children, her late husband Jay's passion—even though horses scare. But it's getting hard
