Its such a shame because I love being a support worker but feel let down by management, and due to staff shortages and 1: Thank you for taking the time to write your review. Thankyoufortakingthetimetowriteyourreview.Thisistheexpectationofa I would be grateful if you could contact Affinity and Trust myself or your Divisional Director to discuss the concerns you have raised in your review so that we can look into these. I agree working with the people we support is extremely rewarding, and requires commitment and hard work from everyone doing this Affinity and Trust. I do my best to meet this with taking their first answer when asking for cover and not brow-beating them into submission, which seems to work quite .
